WALLACE REID in "THE LOVE BURGLAR"

He's the "white black sheep" of his family. He was the best thief of time in his "set" until he turned his talent for larceny to the stealing of a girl's heart.
Let's see! He believes the girl's a crook. Member of an underworld "set"—nothing at all like the fluffy-puffy creatures that had been his companions in dinner-coat days.

Absorbing! Inexplicable! Thrilling! Romantic!
That's "The Love Burglar"

SPORT NOTES

SETS NEW GOLF RECORD

Douglas Edgar Wins Canadian Open With Score of 278.

Hamilton, Ont., July 31.—The world's competitive record for 72-holes medal play of 283, tied last week at Chicago by James Barne, of St. Louis, who previously set the record at Chicago in 1917, was broken here Wednesday by Douglas Edgar, of Atlanta, Ga., who, with a score of 278, won the Canadian open golf championship here.

HANGS UP TROT RECORD

Wilkes Brewer Lowers World Mark for Sixth Heat—Time, 2:05 3/4.

Columbus, O., July 31.—Wilkes Brewer, winner of the unfinished 2:05 trot Tuesday, took a new world's record Wednesday in winning the sixth heat of this event in 2:05 3/4. It was the fastest sixth heat ever trotted, lowering the record of 2:06 3/4, made at Toledo last year by Esperanza Royal Mac was no match for his rival, tiring badly the last 100 feet of the race.

Ante Guy, making her first start of the year, won the 2:04 trot in straight heats from Einland, who was driven by Geers in the absence of Frank Hed-rick, who is still suffering from injuries received at Toledo.

Mignola handily won the 2:08 trot, the Southern hotel stake, purse $2,000. He trotted around his field whenever he pleased.

Roy Gratton, a heavy favorite, took the 2:08 pace with a ripple. In the 2:13 pace, Lady Wrenth and Jack Keith were the real contenders, the latter finally winning after a hard five-heat struggle.

The pacer, Symbol Baron, 2:06 1/4, owned by Chauncey Sears, of Fall River, Mass., dropped dead this morning while Dick McMahon was working him on the track.

WOMEN INTO FINALS

Miss Marguerite Davis and Miss Corinne Gould After Tennis Honors.

Kansas City, July 31.—Championship honors in the women's singles in the western championship tennis tournament will be decided this afternoon when Miss Marguerite Davis, St. Paul, holder of several titles, meets Miss Corinne Gould, St. Louis, recent winner of the Clay courts tournament at Chicago. Play will be started in the fifth round of the men's singles, upper and lower brackets. In the upper bracket, Willis E. Davis, California, will meet Loden Williams, Chicago star and Yale captain, while Howard Penfold, Kansas City champion, will clash with A. L. Green, Jr., city champion of Chicago. In the lower bracket, Fred Jostes, St. Louis, will meet Heath Byford, Chicago, while Ralph Burdick, Chicago, and H. Van Dyke Johns, California, are scheduled as opponents. The third round of the men's doubles and the first round of the mixed doubles will be played off today.

WILLIAMS FACES JOHNSON.

Brilliant Eastern Tennis Star and Californian in Challenge Match Today.

Boston, July 31.—R. Norris Williams, whose brilliant tennis made him the feature player in this year's Longwood tournament, will face William Johnson, winner of the Longwood bowl in 1918, in the challenge contest today.

Williams defeated Richard Harte in the final singles yesterday, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

SCOREBOARD FLASHES

Yesterday's hero, Terry Turner, The veteran recently released by Cleveland singled against the Athletics, 2 to 1.

Larry Cheney walked a Cincinnati player with the bases full in the ninth and the winning run in a 7 to 6 game.

The Cubs collected nine hits off Jeff Pfeffer but were unable to score, going down under a 6 to 0 count.

George Dumas held the Red Sox to a 3 to 1 defeat for the Tigers but that team was unable to win two, losing the second, 3 to 2.

The Yanks had the time of their lives beating the White Sox, 6 to 5, in a ten inning encounter and failed to turn it the second time in the same number of frames, losing, 3 to 5.

Lee Meadows faced his old friends, the Cardinals, struck out ten of them and won for the Phils, 5 to 1.

The Giants captured one game, 9 to 0, from the Pirates, and tossed off the second, 1 to 6.

Kansas Boy Killed by Chum.
Hamilton, July 31.—Chester Perry, 11-year-old son of W. H. Perry of Winfield, was accidentally killed near here about dusk when he was shot by a boy companion. The boy was visiting his grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Kerter, of Hamilton. The bullet was from a .22 caliber rifle, and entered the left lung a few inches above the heart. Little is known of the details, because of the fright of the boy who did the shooting. While Chester's father is stricken with grief, he doesn't think the accident was due wholly to his son's companion's fault.
